Friendships here are bound.

Alma Mater, Alma Mater,
Faith is here with you.

We will ever sing thy praise,
To thee we'll 'ere be true.

Dedication

The Senior Class wishes to recognize a teacher who, through his endless efforts, has made Redbank Valley a high school noted for its outstanding science department. His reputation as one of the area's finest chemistry and physics teachers follows him far beyond the walls of our own school. Each and every student under this man's administration is brought to the realization that nothing in life is attained without the self-desire to achieve.

It is, therefore, with great pleasure and deepest respect that we, the Class of 1971, dedicate our yearbook, The Vallis, to Mr. Paul Norton.

BUZZ

All work and no play makes Richard a dull boy!

Hey, Mr. Krepp, how about turning the clock ahead two hours!

Keep America beautiful—support ecology!

Ready, Mr. Music?

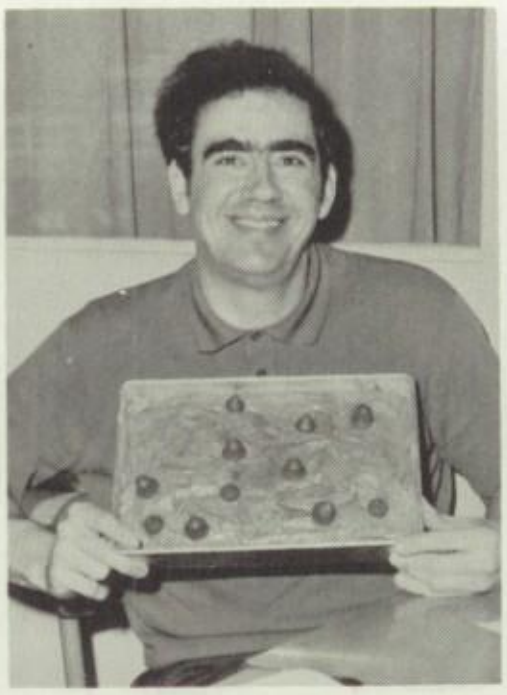
"Oh no! Here come those over-grown grasshoppers from South America!"

"The Devil made me do it!"

"Would you believe that my stock just fell 100 points?"

"Go down to the corner and turn right, then rev up the motor to 5 R.P.M. and dump it."

Aw come on Mike and Ray, it's not all that bad!



Happy Birthday J.C.!!

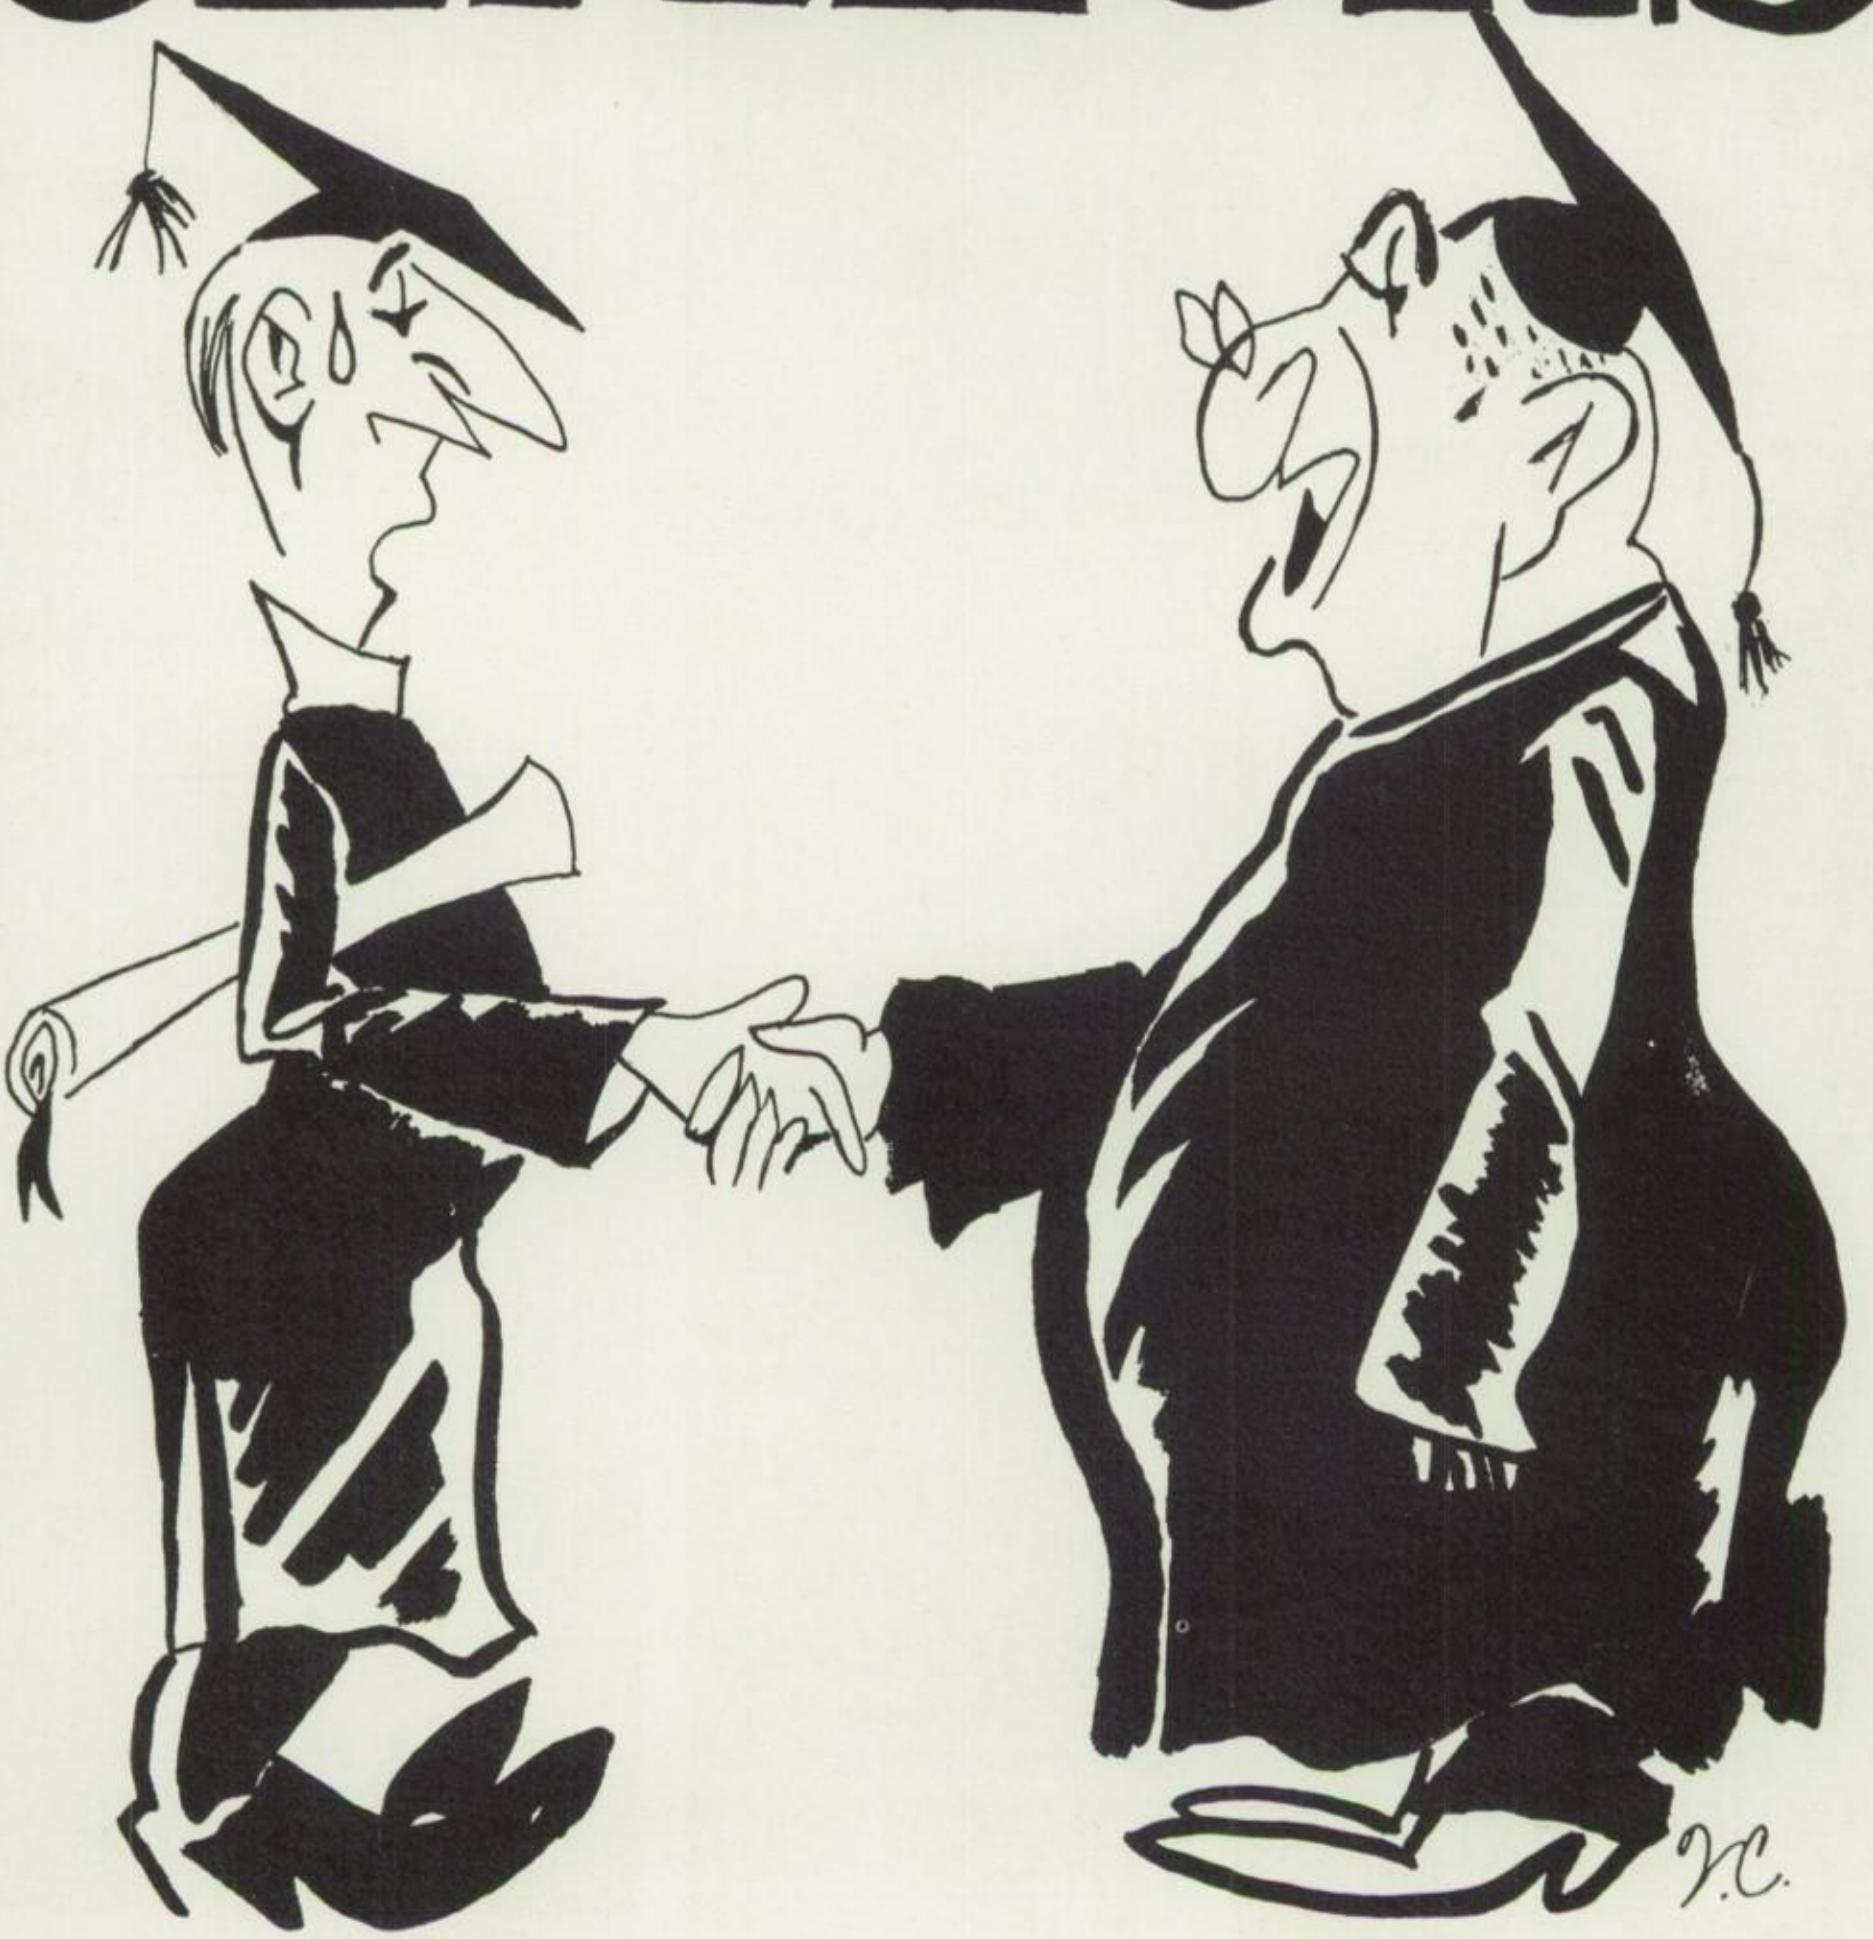
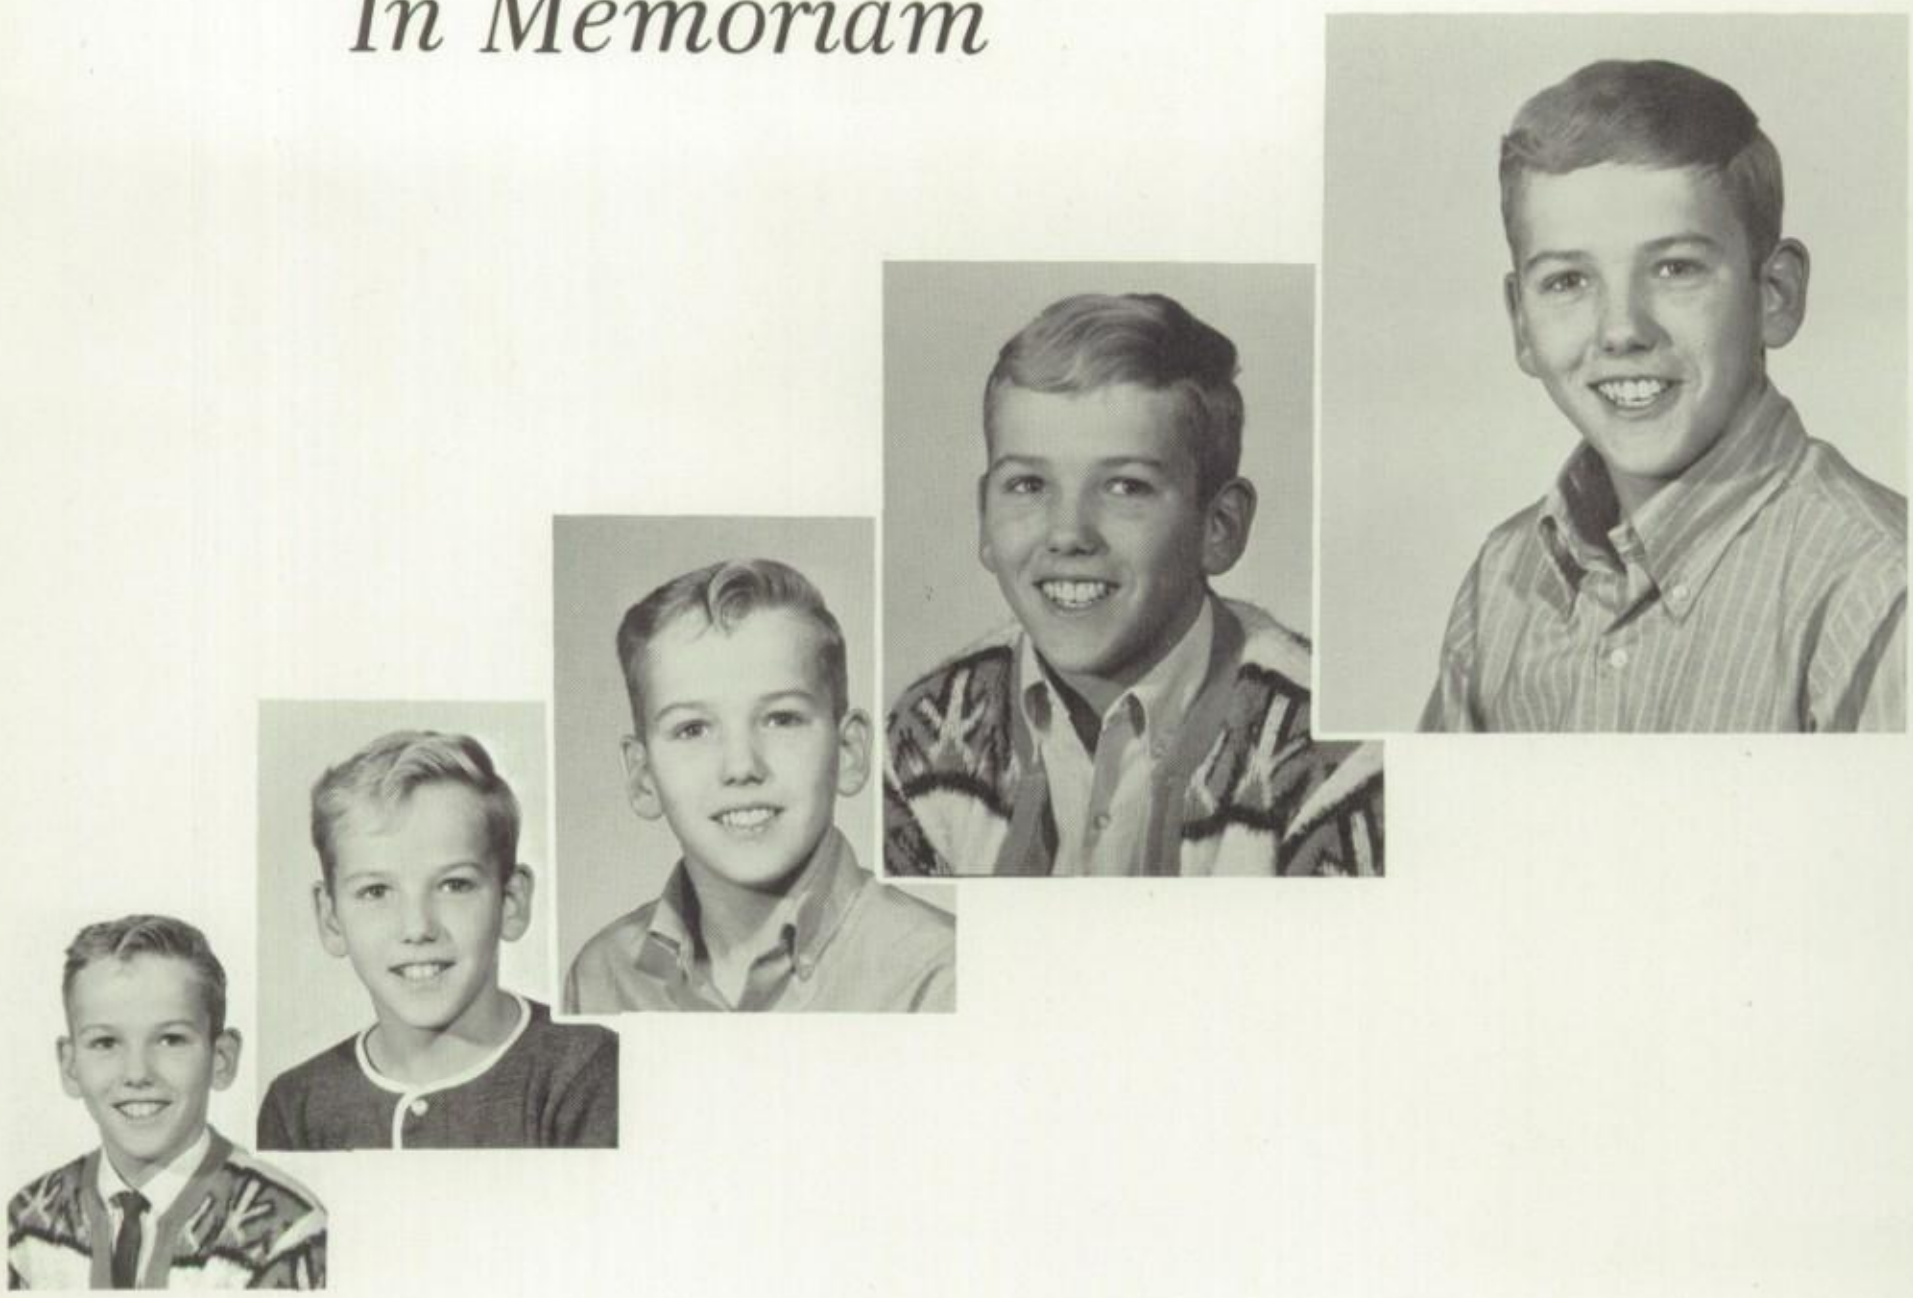
SENIORS



In Memoriam



Of Bobby James Hale who died in Pittsburgh's Childrens Hospital in October, 1969. Jimmy's death was a great shock and tragedy for all, coming early in his junior year. Though he has passed away, Jim will always be a part of the Class of 1971.

You are not forgotten, Jim
Nor will you ever be
As long as life and memory last
We will remember thee.
We miss you now, our hearts are sore
As time goes by, we miss you more,
Your loving smile, your gentle face,
No one can fill your vacant place.

On December 5, 1970, the Senior Class presented "Home Sweet Homicide". The setting of the play was a typical American home in the spring of 1970. The plot concerns the Carstairs family, which consists of a mother, Marian Carstairs who is a mystery story writer, and her three children who try to marry off their widowed mother. At the same time, they need a murder that their mother can solve to make her famous. When a murder is committed next door, the children use this as their big chance, and attempt to solve it. Bill Smith, a handsome police officer lieutenant, who is also a bachelor, is assigned to the case and therefore nominated by the children to be their mother's beau. All attempts were successful as the murder was solved and Mrs. Carstairs was to marry Lieutenant Smith. The play was highlighted by brilliant performances earning the Class of '71 approximately $500.

Cherished memories will always remain, and I have many of these to keep. My experiences as a foreign exchange student forces me to realize many things I have always taken for granted.

Presently Marta Lucia Jaramillo, from Ibaque, Colombia, is living at my home. My only wish is that she will enjoy and remember her stay in New Bethlehem.

My many thanks go to the Student Council for making my trip possible.

Junior Class

How does it feel to be caught in a rush
Of admiration from four classes below you,
And at the same time being forced to decline
To the powers of Seniors ruling o'er you?

How does it feel to settle to study
World History and Cultures or Shorthand
And turn to see your Chemistry
Or Algebra II at demand?

How does it feel to know a mere year
Separates you from the final year in high school,
And then it is you—the Class of '72
To lead the rest with your rule?

How does it feel to feel all these things
Mentioned here plus many, many more?
I'm sure you know—if its ever been so,
That you've been a Junior before.

The purpose of Bullpup Football is to interest boys in the sport and to have them discover the work involved in learning the game. In the practices, fundamentals are stressed.

Due to the poor turnout this year, there were only two teams instead of four. Several practice games and two regular games were played on the football field.

These boys are the future football stars of R.V.H.S.

Coach Larry Shumaker, Assistant Coach Edwin Doverspike.

28		Ford City

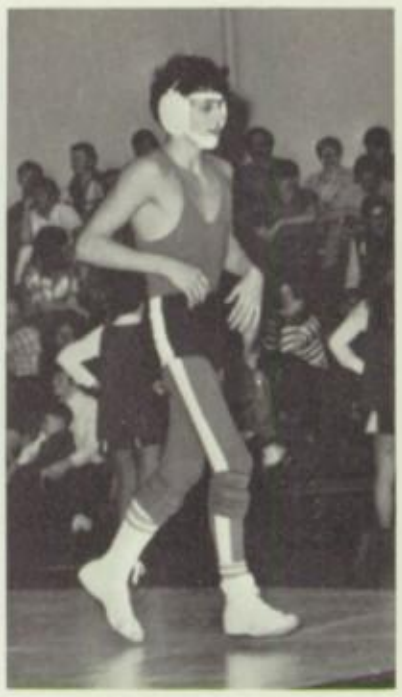
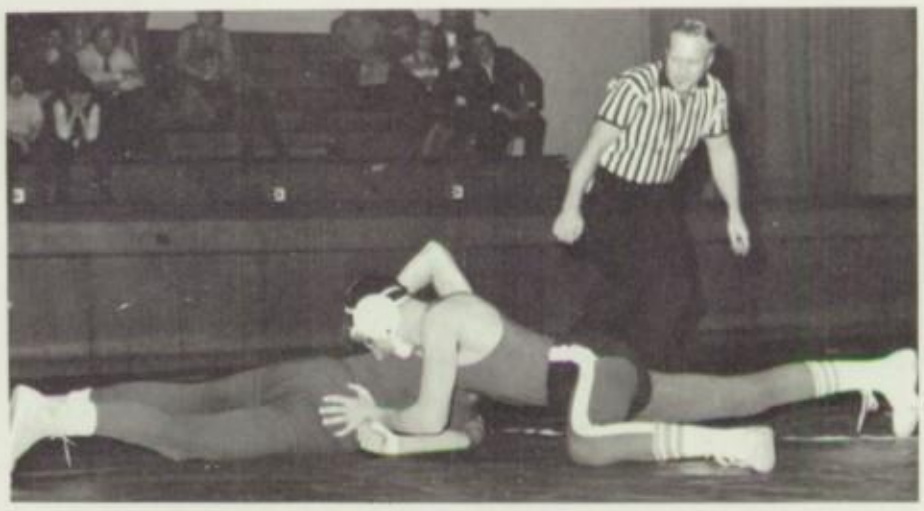
Now if everybody has their partners, we'll begin the dance.

For as big as he is, he has to weigh at least 250 pounds.



"Your pants came off out there three times, Bush!"

"I think I'll bite him right below the neck!"



"I'll give you a nickel if you roll over for me!!"

Like a bridge over troubled waters.

Frrrr Meatball Frrrr.

"Oh, my aching back'."

Take the Good

Mr. Dosch and his band of renowns.

Oh my aching back!

We need Alka-Seltzer.

One ringy dingy.

Redbank's own basketball bunny club.

Times with You . . .

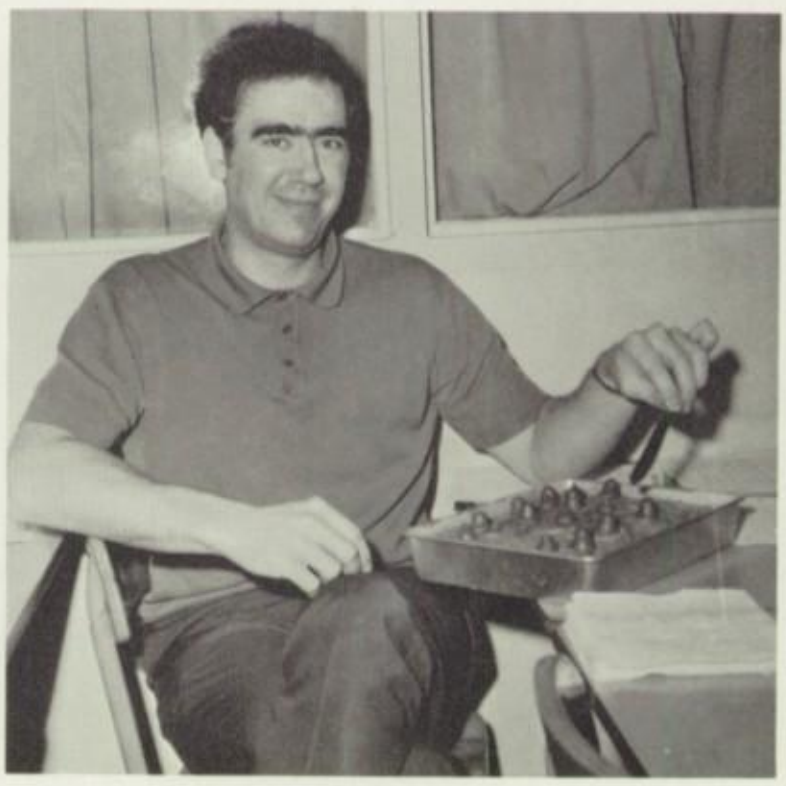
I don't believe you did that.

Be calm, be cool, be collected.

Is this high enough.

Where'd you get those peepers?

Hey, you missed a spot.



What you see is what you get.

"BEST WISHES AND CONTINUED SUCCESS IN THE FUTURE."

In Appreciation

Mr. James C. Long

He rules with an iron hand.

"Is this Carol, Debbie, or Jane?"

We would like to extend to Mr. James C. Long a word of thanks for all the wonderful work he has done to help us.

It is a tough task to be an adviser for a yearbook. Mr. Long has spent many long, extra hours helping us to meet deadlines and getting things done. Without him there could be no yearbook, and so we thank you, Mr. Long, for all you have done. Your help was greatly appreciated.

Farewell—
A time to look back
And remember.
Remember
Sports and studies,
Clubs and concerts,
Trials and tears,
Friends and fun.
From these
We learned and grew and prepared
To make our
Desires,
Ambitions,
Dreams
Into reality.
Now, as we look back, we wonder;
And we hope
That we gave as much to Redbank
As it gave to us.
